

CONSERVATION WEEK, PROJECT OF THE WOMEN'S CLUBS, OPENS TO-DAY

Gov. Miller Indorses the Movement Which Begins With Varied Program at New York University—Play and Motion Pictures Features

A BUSY week is ahead for women members of clubs, for any number of benefit events, lectures, concerts and card parties, all in aid of some worthy cause, are scheduled, not to mention the regular meetings and entertainments of their respective organizations.

In addition to all of these events it will be Conservation Week, the project of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Richard M. Chapman president. The committee on conservation, Mrs. Charles Cyrus Marshall, chairman, has arranged a week of varied interests, each one of which accentuates the problem of conserving the natural resources of our country.

Gov. Miller has given his "wholehearted indorsement" to Conservation Week, which begins this afternoon with exercises at the New York University, with Mrs. William White Miles as chairman. There will be speaking and drills by Boy and Girl Scouts and motion pictures. There also will be addresses by T. Gilbert Pearson, president of the National Audubon Society; R. L. Dittmars, curator of the New York Zoological Gardens, and W. A. Murrill of the Botanical Gardens.

To-morrow afternoon a play, "The Spirit of Conservation," by Almeda M. Castello, will be given at the Selwyn Theater. Gustave Frieling and Ralph Steurer will have the parts of hunters; Mrs. C. C. Marshall, who has been leading the campaign for better protection for upland birds, will impersonate Mother Quail, while Alice Glasser and Bernice Strong will be Young Quail. In the forest scenes trees will be represented by Mrs. Harry Lilly, Mrs. Willis P. Miner, Mrs. Ralph Stoddard, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Dudley Van Holland, while the foresters, lumbermen and lumberjacks will be represented by members of the National Forestry Committee. There also will be dances by Misses Frances Simmons and Marguerite Crittenden.

Mrs. Richard M. C. Chapman will have the name part and Mrs. Henrietta Speke Seely will have charge of the musical parts. The date was chosen principally because it was the birthday of the naturalist, the late John Burroughs.

Tuesday will be Forestry Day, when the Museum of Natural History will be the scene of the activities. Mr. C. R. Pettis of the State Conservation Committee at 2 o'clock will speak on "Forestry," and two hours later the Camp Fire Girls will give an exhibition.

Mrs. John Clapperton Kerr will be the chairman of Park Day, Wednesday, when the program will be held at the Hotel Astor. Mr. Harold Caparn will speak on the State parks and show motion pictures. Mr. LeRoy Jeffers will show colored slides of our national parks and Mr. George Barnard will tell of plans for Memorial Park on the Hudson.

Mr. Frederick Walcott, Game Commissioner of the State of Connecticut, will speak at the morning session of Wild Life Day, Thursday, of which Mrs. C. C. Marshall will be the acting chairman. Mr. William T. Hornaday will speak on wild life protection, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon Lee S. Cranford will show a remarkable group of pheasant pictures (with slides). This will be followed by an open quorum on unlawful feather traffic and bird protection. Bird songs and bird poems will have their place on the program, and Minnie Madden Fisk will speak on humane work for domestic animals.

Mrs. John Francis Sawyer, as chairman, will have charge of the program, giving honor to great American conservationists and naturalists. There will be well known speakers and music on this day, Friday, at 2 P. M., at Hotel Astor.

Saturday will be Brooklyn day and Mrs. Frank K. Perkins, as chairman, has arranged a reception and luncheon at the Children's Museum in Brooklyn, and in the afternoon there will be speaking at Borough Hall.

Motion Picture Show
At Mozart Musicals

The sixth morning musicals, luncheon, dance and motion pictures of the New York Mozart Society, Mrs. Noble McCosham, president, took place yesterday at the Hotel Astor. The musical program began at 11 o'clock, followed by a luncheon at 1 and an hour later the picture, "The World's Champion," in which Wallace Reid is the star, was shown. This was followed by dancing. The artists for the musicals were: Lillian Wald, Claire Lillian Feltner, with Charles Gilbert Spross at the piano. The next evening concert of the club will take place on April 13, when Mrs. Lillian Wald will be the soloist and Mrs. Edwin Nye, pianist. At the last "Get Together Day" at the league's clubrooms, 144 West Fifty-fifth street, Mrs. A. M. Gendner was the soloist.

The annual springtime festival and breakfast in restaurants of the club will be held on Saturday, May 6. A meeting of the committee, Mrs. Samuel Gardner Estabrook, chairman, will be held on Thursday. It has been decided to have the mothers' group of the East Side Clinic for Women and Children guests at the breakfast. They will be served in an adjoining room. More than 100 tables already have been taken for the breakfast.

Theater, Mrs. Harold George Wood, president, held a monthly meeting at the Hotel Astor, and afterward attended a performance of "The Law Breakers" at the Times Square Theater. The meeting was the subject of only one of the topics for discussion was the Easter breakfast which will be held on April 24 at the Hotel Astor. The decorations will be in yellow and white and it promises to be a most brilliant affair.

Among those invited as guests of honor are Gov. and Mrs. Nathan L. Miller.

Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, Mrs. Felix Warburg, Mrs. Joseph Auerbach, Miss Helen C. Frick, Mrs. Clinton Backus, Mrs. Jacob L. Phillips, Mrs. Edward Siegman and Mrs. Clara George Leavitt were among the box holders at the annual concert of the Blind Men's Improvement Club of New York on Saturday night last at the College Settlement. The program was given by Miss Jeanette Vreeland, soprano; Norman Joffit, baritone; Josie Pajol, violinist; John Melidrum, pianist; Dr. William C. Carl, organist, and Miss Oia Guldberg, accompanist, all of whom contributed their services.

The Woman's League for the Protection of Riverside Park, of which Mrs. John Clapperton Kerr is president, was one of the cooperating organizations with the Municipal Art Society of New York holding a meeting at Town Hall Wednesday. The subject of the meeting was the abuse of outdoor advertising and the speakers were Andrew Wright Crawford of Philadelphia, Arnold W. Brunner, president of the Fine Arts Federation; Joseph Pennell, Sen. Nathan Strauss, Jr.; Albert S. Bard, secretary of Billboard Advertising Commission; E. Allen Frost and Joseph Howard Hunt, president of the Municipal Art Society. A very large audience was in attendance.

Under the auspices of Mrs. Clarence H. Low, Mrs. Charles E. Miller, Miss Edith P. Morgan, Mrs. Meredith Blagden and Miss Bess Williams of the College Settlement, executive board, and Mrs. Leon L. Wald, Miss Adeline Wheelock, Mrs. Louis S. Hille and Mrs. George E. Hill of the College Women's Auxiliary for College Settlement, a rummage sale was held at the College Settlement gymnasium on Second avenue and First street, last Wednesday and Thursday. All sorts of articles were on sale, and many bargains in clothing, household furnishings and bric-a-brac.
